

Announcements for Monday October 11th

Happy Monday South Eugene! Today is Indigenous Peoples' Day! On this day we recognize and honor the incredible strength and contributions to this country made by the Tribal Nations. Let's celebrate and recognize the many Indigenous communities and cultures that make up our country.

Counseling Center: Seniors if you have not scheduled a senior interview with your counselor PLEASE do so in the first trimester!! Appointments can be scheduled by using the QR code located in the counseling office or by going to the scheduling link on the SEHS website. This valuable meeting will give you an opportunity to connect with your counselor about Senior year, including college applications and post high school plans.

Feminist Union: Come join the Feminist union! At Feminist Union, we will discuss different social justice issues without fluff. If you are interested in social justice or if you're not, come anyway and make some friends!! Everybody is welcome to join Feminist Union regardless of gender, race, etc.. Feminist union meets during lunch on Thursdays in room 409.

Latinx Student Union: Do you want to be a part of a group that makes a positive impact in our community? Are you interested in celebrating latinx culture?

Come visit LSU's info table this Wednesday during Fall Fest to learn more about Latinx Student Union! Everyone is welcome.

National Honor Society: The first meeting of this year's NHS will be on Tuesday, October 12th, during lunch, in the auditorium. See you all on the 12th!

Rotary Interact: Do you need volunteer hours? Are you interested in giving back to your community? Then head to Rotary Interact in room 415 during lunch to participate in our ongoing community service projects!

School-To-Careers: UO Housing & Dining are hiring high school students 16 years and older. Flexible hours, $13.25 per hour, applicants must be fully vaccinated. Email houshire@uoregon.edu with attached resume or call 541-346-4330 and leave a message. See Kathy Ruggles in Room 302 for more information.
