

Black Student MAGAZINE OREGON

Come join...

It's FREE

Wednesdays

After School

3:30 Special Guests

4:00-5:00 Mentoring

October thru December 2021

Access Link: https://

us02web.zoom.us/j/8928501934

Click Here to Register

Watch the new Video

Contact: Jael Calloway, Editor

jaelcalloway6@gmail.com

Journalistic Learning Initiative

Join Black middle and high school students from across Oregon in creating the next edition of Black Student Magazine!

This fall you have an opportunity gather weekly on Wednesdays via Zoom to celebrate Black culture and make new friends statewide while improving your writing and multimedia skills.

Participating students receive mentoring and writing support from University of Oregon journalism undergraduates who are also students of color. Learn photography, writing, layout, design and leadership skills. No prior journalism experience is required.

View the first edition.

- Weekly Prizes
- Make New Friends
- Enjoy Guest Speakers
- Discover Career Opportunities

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

School of Journalism and Communication

The Journalistic Learning Initiative is an Oregon-based nonprofit organization committed to empowering student voice and improving academic outcomes through project-based learning.