

Announcements for Tuesday November 2nd

The Boys Soccer Team will play West Salem in the second round of the OSAA State Playoffs tomorrow at 5:30pm here at South Eugene. The South Eugene Soccer Club and the Friends of South Booster Club have sponsored 100 student tickets to be given away to the first 100 students who come to the ticket gate tomorrow at 4:30pm. This will be on a first come, first serve basis. Come support the Axe tomorrow!

Counseling Center: Are you planning to take AP exams in the Spring? It's time to register and submit the payment. Please check the AP section under Academics on the SEHS website for instructions. Deadline is 11/11.

D&D club: Join us for D&D! Tuesday, Nov. 2nd in room 714 after school.

Feminist Union: Interested in educating yourself and working towards change in our community? Stop by Feminist Union in room 409 every Thursday! We discuss all kinds of topics about social justice and are working towards destigmatizing what it means to be a feminist. It is a safe space for everybody to express themselves freely and we encourage everyone to try going at least once. We're excited to see you all!

Letters for Rose Club: Come join Letters for Rose! We write letters and send art to local retirement homes to keep our community elders from feeling lonely in these hard times. It's a great way to earn volunteer hours and it's relaxing and easy. We meet every Tuesday in room 408, everyone is welcome.

Math Club: The Math Club will be meeting on Tuesdays in Room 718 during lunch. Come by to prepare for the American Mathematics Competition! All are welcome.

NASU Meeting: NASU is meeting in room 304 during lunch today.

Intramural Ping Pong: There will be an intramural ping pong tournament happening over the next month. If you are interested in participating you can sign up at tinyurl.com/sehspong. There are only 32 spots available so only the first 32 who fill out the google form will be able to compete!
