

Announcements for Thursday November 18th

Seniors! Tomorrow, November 19, is the deadline to place cap and gown orders. Check out the Class of 2022 Graduation page on the SEHS website for more info.

Counseling Center: Duck Link Winter Term applications are due by end of day this Friday, November 19th. Please turn in your applications to Leann in counseling. If you applied for Fall term, but did not register for a class you MUST submit a new application for winter term. Please see Leann if you have any questions.

SEHS Football: There will be a short team meeting for all football players on Monday during lunch in room 307.

Feminist Union: Interested in educating yourself and working towards change in our community? Stop by Feminist Union today in room 409 during lunch.

South Eugene Theater: Don't miss the final weekend of South Eugene Theater's fall production, Pride and Prejudice, concluding this Friday and Saturday night at 7:00pm, with a Sunday matinee at 2:00pm. Jane Austen's timeless classic comes to life, with one of the best loved romantic comedies of all time. Tickets are available at the door or on-line at www.southeugenetheater.org

SEHS Student Government: Elections are happening tomorrow during advisory. Campaign materials are available on the stu gov instagram @sehsstugov and on the website www.sehsstugov.org.

Mascot Tryouts: If you are interested in being a mascot for South Eugene sign up for mascot tryouts with the qr code on flyers around the school.

